

NOTTINGHAMSHIRE COUNTY LINK BULLETIN

January 2012

A message from the LINK

Happy New Year and welcome to the first e-bulletin of 2012. We have a lot to tell you about already and are pleased to include a copy of the latest newsletter.

Thank you for continuing to support Nottinghamshire County LINK.

Book your place now...

We are holding a Question Time event in Bassetlaw!!

The event will be held at Acorn Theatre, Queen Street, Worksop, S80 2AN from 7-9pm on 22nd March 2012.

It will give you, the members of the community, the opportunity to put your health and social care questions to a panel of 6 experts from health and social care organisations across Nottinghamshire.

To book your place call 01159629350 today!

Details on similar events in Newark and Mansfield will be confirmed soon.....

LINK workshops 2012

Members were invited to attend the LINK workshops held throughout January. The workshops gave members of the local community the opportunity to tell the LINK about their health and social care issues and inform the LINK work-plan for 2012 - 13.

The feedback was good, with the delegates finding the exchange of news and the raising of issues the most important aspect of all workshops.

Online surveys

Tell us about your experiences of health and social care in Nottinghamshire. Let us know what you think:

If you are aged between 18 and 25 or in full time education please go to <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/linkcollege> to fill in our survey.

If you are in full or part time work please fill in the survey at <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/linkwork>.

Keep up to date with LINK at www.strongerlocalvoice.com